What's Going on in the LLC this Month?

Welcome to the August whirlwind

We've spent the month preparing, and we're ready to meet Fall Term with a Welcome Week whirlwind, including musical performances and the chance for students to win all kinds of prizes. In the calm before the storm of activity, we also take a moment to reflect on our staff's accomplishments. Click here to learn more about what we've got scheduled and who we're celebrating.

What We're Reading This Month

Diane at Kent is reading:

From the end of World War I to about 1970, millions of black citizens abandoned the South for better lives in major cities in the Northeast, Midwest, and California. Known as The Great Migration, this vast population shift changed the landscape of our country forever. In The Warmth of Other Suns, Journalist Isabelle Wilkerson chronicles the Great Migration from the perspective of three southern Blacks. It's an important book, but not a pretty one. Alex at South is watching:

Ryan Bingham (George Clooney) believes no one should have attachments, physical or emotional. Alex Goran (Vera Farmiga) shares similar views, and appears to be perfect for Bingham. New employee Natalie Keener (Anna Kendrick) is fresh out of business school with a desire to be as passionless as Bingham. This is an exceptional film, a moving examination of life and "living." Don't assume this is another romantic comedy when you look at the DVD cover - you'll miss out.
